Temples and Divine Presence in the Ancient Near East

The body of a believer is the dwelling place of God. In 1 Corinthians 6:19, Paul tells believers that "your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you." He mentions this as a reason why believers should break away from all involvement in sexual immorality (1 Cor 6:18).

The Dwelling Places of God in Scripture | Shepherd Thoughts

So many people suffer from a negative body image. But, consider this truth as a follower of Jesus Christ:

Your Body Temple: God's Dwelling Place

(16) The temple of God.--From the thought of grand edifices in general the Apostle goes on to the particular case of a building which is not only splendid but "holy"--the temple of God--thus reminding the reader that the rich and valuable metals and stones spoken of previously are to represent spiritual attainments.

1 Corinthians 3:16 Do you not know that you yourselves are ...

The God who made the world and everything in it is the Lord of heaven and earth and does not live in temples made by human hands. 2 Corinthians 5:1 Now we know that if the earthly tent we live in is dismantled, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands.

Acts 7:48 However, the Most High does not dwell in houses ...

A temple means a dwelling place of God or the house of God. See what is a church and what is a temple. God does not dwell in non-living things without destiny but He uses them for a purpose. God dwells in humans with destiny.

The Body is the Temple of God

In Solomon's Temple God came and dwelt in a permanent dwelling place with His people in the Promised Land. "It happened that when the priests came from the holy place, the cloud filled the house of the Lord, so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord" (1 Kings 8:11-12).

Exodus 25-40 God Dwelling with Man

In the New Testament, we are reminded many times about how we are now God's dwelling place. We no longer have to worship, pray or converse with God in a specific place, because He lives within us. At first glance, 1 Corinthians 3:16-17 implies an overwhelming responsibility to understand that we truly are God's temple, that we are the only ones who can take care of it, and that He has commanded us to do so.

Our Bodies, God's Temple - Proverbs 31

Review of Biblical Literature

Images of the gods typically took the form of idols placed in ancient temples. The message of Genesis 1-2 is clear: God created humanity to dwell with him and bear his image in the world. For a brief moment, there was no need for a temple structure. All humankind lived in harmony with each other, nature, and God.
