SELECTING YOUR BOWLS. In choosing your weapons, go for the largest bowls you can most comfortably hold. They need less effort to deliver, which means a smoother swing and consequently, fewer problems at the other end. Also, in a measure for shot, the difference between winning and losing can be the difference between a large bowl and a small one.

3. The Basics | John Snell's Winning Bowls

c. Confirms what Bosisto and Soars are saying about moving to the "inside" of the mat but as the drawing shows, with identical weight the delivered bowl will pass under the offending bowl and finish short of the jack. Should a little more weight be applied the bowl will traverse the bowl in the draw but finish slightly wide of the jack. d.

Visualisation | John Snell's Winning Bowls

As you release the bowl, the arm continues to swing through the line, generating the pace needed for the shot played. It is almost guaranteed by pushing the arm out in an exaggerated follow-through 7G.Reach out, in this action, as if you were trying to grasp the aiming mark at the other end of the green.

4. On the Mat | John Snell's Winning Bowls

Basically, it is seven times the distance you wish to run after contact with the target bowl. In other words, if the opposition bowl is a metre short of the jack, you deliver your bowl to finish seven metres through. If you merely want to turn the opponent's bowl out, the formula is three times the distance the bowl is to be moved.

6. Towards Mastery | John Snell's Winning Bowls

He served in the Boer War, took up bowls in 1903, and won the Victorian singles title three years later, and the State Champion of Champions title the following year. In 1943, thirty-six years later, Dick Harrison again won that Champion of Champions title. He was then seventy years of age.
