On Mirrodin, everything is made of metal—from forests to mountains to grass. Five suns cast their light on the plane, one for each color of mana. Long ago, this metal plane was created by Karn, the silver golem built by the Planeswalker Urza. But something went wrong with Karn's creation. He unwittingly introduced a dark contagion: Phyrexian oil.

The entire book was filler surrounding a half-assed fetch quest to get one artifact to complete a set of 3 (because she already had two in hand, because why not make it more boring). Her friend, Slobad, had been captured and forced to build the Ascension Web for Memnarch. In their final battle, he and Glissa both fell into Mirrodin's mana core, dying instantaneously.
