Colin Gunton's
Introduction to the Christian Faith is a very approachable book for those who wish to think about systematic theology. He organizes the book in the same way that Friedrich Schleiermacher did
with his book under the same name, as a discussion of the Christian creed and the Trinitarian faith we've inherited.

The order of the book follows the central themes of the Nicene Creed, the manifesto of the Christian faith.

Beginning with consideration of creation and providence, it moves on to the person and work of Christ, and then to the human appropriation of belief and eschatology.
